

ALOVÉA LIMITLESS

TWO CAPSULES, LIMITLESS POTENTIAL

BENEFITS:

Most beet root extracts contain non-standardized levels of betalains and up to 70% (pro-inflammatory) sugar. Limitless utilizes a patented extract that removes 100% of the sugar and standardizes efficacious levels of these powerful betalains. Purified betalains have been clinically shown to reduce the biomarkers of inflammation by 47% and improve the feeling of energy more than 120%.

Limitless may help the body:

- Reduce the biomarkers of inflammation
- Fight fatigue and support mental alertness
- Promote joint comfort and flexibility
- Support athletic recovery and performance
- Fight free radicals and promote healthy aging

"At 52 I'm feeling vibrantly healthy physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. Limitless is a big part of that."

— Mark Jackson, NFL (Retired)

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

1. Chronic inflammation is the root cause of almost every type of chronic disease. But, the excess use of nonsteroidal/anti-inflammatory drugs have led to significant adverse effects.
2. Purified beet root betalains have been shown to markedly suppress cox-2 enzymes, (important precursors to pro-inflammatory metabolites) without any negative side effects.
3. Limitless contains a proprietary concentration of these powerful anti-inflammatory supporting molecules. With zero sugar due to a patent-pending process, these purified betalains provide unique support for joint comfort and flexibility.

ABOUT ACEMANNAN

Alovéa AE is a proprietary stabilized aloe vera extract with the highest concentration of immune-modulating fractions of Acemannan for advanced immune support. It's also incorporated in all of Alovéa's product offerings.
